Last Moment Spent Playing Old Phonograph

SAN QUENTIN PRISON, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—A pallid youth of high school age, with sturdy, broad shoulders and stubby fingers that from time to time massaged a spot just below his left ear, sat in a 20 foot cubicle in the San Quentin death house tonight.

The raucous notes of a cheap phonograph ground out popular airs while the youth meditated. Two veteran guards, bored of their duty, sat before the barred door, one of them ever watching the solitary tenant of the small room. His eyes stared through the half-gloom, broken by the flicker of one small open gas jet, like accusing fingers.

Face Floor
The youth rose, changed records on the phonograph, then went back to his cot. He was up again walking to the door and glancing at the watchful guard. Then he fell to pacing the short length of the death cell.

William Edward Hickman was spending his last night on earth. He was charged with the murder of Marion Parker, 12-year-old daughter of a Los Angeles banker.

The last effort of his lawyers to gain another hearing on Hickman's mentality failed today when an appeal to Warden James Holman for the appointment of a commission to examine the condemned youth was formally denied.

Last Hope Gone

The attorneys, Jerome K. Walsh of Kansas City, and Richard H. Cantillon of Los Angeles appeared to be disappointed. They, perhaps, had held out some slight hope that Hickman would be saved by some last minute respite.

The boy who less than a year ago had styled himself "The Fox" and baffled police of three states for days after committing the cruellest crime in the history of California was not noticeably disappointed, however.

Resigned to Fate
The "Fox" trapped and about to die for his crime had been resigned to death for days. He continued this last evening the calmest man connected with his case.

During the last days of his life he took on an air of a spiritual adviser. He wrote letters to the family of his victim, asking forgiveness and then went into a

JOHNSTON TO VISIT DAM PROJECT

Accompanied by at least 20 Eastbay civic leaders, Henry A. Johnston, candidate for director of the Eastbay Municipal Utility district, will leave tomorrow noon for a two day visit to the La Grana Plana dam, central feature of the Mokelumne Water Project, it was announced yesterday.

This will be Johnston's first visit to the dam in several months and will give him an opportunity to study not only the dam itself, but many other features of the big project, according to Fred N. Morcom, chairman of the Johnston campaign committee.

To Return Sunday
The party will leave the headquarters of the Utility district at

RICHMONDELKS WILL TOUR HAWAII

When the big liner "Matsonia" sails out through the Golden Gate on April 10, 1929, she will have on board a large delegation of central California Elks, their families and friends, including many from Richmond.

Plans have been completed for a three week's cruise using the "Matsonia" for the round trip, including a special side trip to the island of Hawaii, on which is located the volcano Kilauea. Arriving in Honolulu April 16, the Elks will commence enjoying a program of sightseeing, feasting, dancing and good times that will last for eight days. There will be many notable excursions by automobile, including a trip around the island of Oahu and visits to the sugar cane and pineapple plantations. After making a three day excursion to Hilo they will again be the guests of Honolulu. Headquarters will be on the beach at Waikiki, at the world famed Royal Hawaiian Hotel. A feature of the visit will be a native Luau, or feast, accompanied by Hula dancing and Hawaiian music.

Arrangements are being made to sail the "Matsonia" from an Oakland dock in order that Elks from the Eastbay and interior cities may board the ship on the continental side of San Francisco bay.

Arrangements for the party, which will probably number 200, are being made by the Elks lodges of Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley and Richmond as well as some 20 other California cities. The secretaries of the various lodges have started to make reservations already for the cruise.

Richmond Men At Martinez Tax Meeting

Richmond was represented last night at a dinner session of the Contra Costa county committee of the California Tax Payers' association in Martinez.

The group from this city included Al Burdick, E. H. Higgins, Ralph Bergen and Henry A. Johnston attended the meeting in a body.

Vance H. Evans, executive secretary of the association addressed the group on the work of the association. He declared that the purpose of the group is to criticize the work of the law makers but instead is to offer a helping hand in solving the problems.

The membership of the group numbers over 150, it was reported. A membership campaign now under way is reported to be bringing a large group of new members into the association.

As it is too late this year, nothing will be done about a county survey of taxes, but it is expected that in the near future this survey may be made in an effort to determine if tax payers of this county are getting their money's worth in exchange for the taxes they are paying.

The meeting was attended by an enthusiastic throng, Johnston reported.

Clifford Anglim Capital Speaker

Clifford C. Anglim, secretary of the Richmond Credit Rating Bureau, will address the Northern Conference of the California State Association of Retail Credit Men in Sacramento tomorrow.

EPISCOPALIAN PRAYER BOOK ALTERED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—The house of Bishops of the Episcopal church completed revision of the book of common prayer today after 12 years work.

The labor of more than a decade ended without ceremony. Several resolutions presented by Bishop Slattery of Massachusetts cleared up technical details. Approval was given for publication of the new prayer book and the long work was over.

The new book is modernized. Its expressions which have lost meaning in this generation were eliminated. According to Bishop Slattery "without ceasing to be the book of the ages, the new prayer book becomes also the book of this generation."

But advocates of the old order of things in the church scored a mighty victory when they forced retention of the thirty-nine articles of religion which had previously been voted out of the prayer book in the New Orleans convention in 1925.

Many of the bishops desired to remove the 29 articles as antiquated and no longer suitable to the present age. Those favoring the articles contended that elimination of them would make the Episcopal church religiously the same as that of the Roman Catholic church.

Many of the doctrines and ceremonies are expressly repudiated by the articles of religion and, as the bishop expressed it, "state clearly the historical doctrinal difference between the Anglican communion and the Roman Catholic church."

Italian Shot For Slaying Of Fascists

LUCCA, Italy, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—Michele della Magliora, who was convicted Wednesday of killing two Fascist officials because of their politics, sat calmly in a chair behind a cemetery at Ponte Buggianese at dawn today and faced the rifle muzzles of 12 crack marksmen of the 9th legion of Fascist militia.

A freshly lighted cigarette hung from the corner of his mouth and his hands were tightly bound behind the chair.

Magliora suddenly shouted at the top of his voice and at the same second a burst of flame spouted from the rifle muzzles. The slayer of two fascists died instantly with an oath on his lips and at the hands of his victim's compatriots.

At no time was there a hint of fear in the manner of the condemned man. His last wish was for a cigarette and his last words were fierce curses to repel the priest who offered him solace at the moment he faced the firing squad.

Cars Damaged In San Pablo Crash

Two cars were damaged in a crash on San Pablo avenue near Clinton avenue late yesterday. No one was injured.

Cars being driven by Andrew Parrella, 249 Fourteenth street, and Joe Brakjick, 5224 McBryde avenue, were driving east on San Pablo avenue when Brakjick halted his machine to pick up some friends. Parrella's car struck the halted machine, swerved and completely turned over. The top and windshield were shattered. Brakjick's left rear wheel was torn off.

British Aviator Long Overdue In Daring Venture

LONDON, Oct. 18—(U.P.)—Flood-lights at Croydon air-drome were snapped out at 9 p. m., when the most optimistic of those awaiting the arrival of Lieut. Comdr. H. C. Macdonald were forced to admit that the tiny Gypsy Moth airplane in which the retired naval officer had started a flight from Newfoundland to England was no longer in the air.

At that time, several hours after the absolute limit of flying time allotted the plane, there had been no word that Macdonald had reached safety.

At midnight messages had been received from points all along the coast of Ireland and England and there was no report that Macdonald's plane had reached its destination. The slight possibility that he had landed in the interior of some place without regular communication remained.

Last Word
The last word from Macdonald was a message from the liner

Democratic Rally Set For Tonight

Richmond democrats will launch an intensive campaign for Alfred E. Smith and Joe Robinson at a political rally to be held tonight at the Lincoln auditorium. The affair which is to be attended by democrats from all parts of the county will start at 6 o'clock when a radio will tune in the address of Smith to be delivered at a Chicago mass meeting. This feature of the program will last until about 7 p. m.

The Smith-Robinson gathering will be addressed by Daniel Malloy, former attorney general of Montana according to L. J. Thomas, chairman of the democratic program committee who has arranged the events for the night. In addition to Malloy other speakers are to be on hand to tell about the qualifications of the two men who seek the presidential and vice presidential offices of the nation.

Richmond Bourbons Plan County Tour

Contra Costa county will be visited by a caravan of Richmond democrats tomorrow who will boost the candidacy of Alfred E. Smith and Joe Robinson for the highest national offices.

Led by Lee Windrem, local attorney and Gus Lang, the cars, bedecked with signs will swing out of the city early tomorrow on a trek to Byron where a luncheon will be served. A Smith-Robinson rally will be held there with Daniel Malloy, former attorney general of Montana, as the principal speaker. Malloy will also speak at the various cities which will be visited during the afternoon.

From Byron the caravan which will be augmented by up country Bourbons, will swing through several of the cities in that section where open air rallies will be conducted. The group is scheduled to reach Pittsburg at 8 p. m. where a big open air rally will be conducted by the Richmond democrats. It is the intention of the local Smith-Robinson boosters to add democrats from all parts of the county to the caravan so that when it reaches Pittsburg it will be one of the largest democratic meetings ever held in the county.

East Richmond Bus Line Held Assured

Bus service for the residents of the east Richmond district is practically assured, following a survey of the proposed route by an Eastbay taxi service.

Councilman A. L. Paulsen yesterday stated that the taxi company is anxious to locate a franchise from the city council Monday night. The company plans to begin on a small scale and if the service warrants would put on additional buses.

The service as proposed would not parallel the Key System but would connect with it at Twenty-third street and Macdonald and with the bus to the Southern Pacific ferry at Tenth street and Nevin avenue.

The company is the same that several months ago sought a permit to establish a bus service in Richmond but at that time the council sought service from east Richmond to Point Richmond. Objections to the length of the route were voiced by the taxi company.

The route as proposed will start at the city limits of Richmond on San Pablo avenue, down Barrett avenue to the city hall, over Nevin avenue to Twenty-third street and Macdonald avenue. The route then proceeds along Twenty-second street to Barrett avenue to Fifteenth street to Nevin avenue to Tenth street where it will connect with the Key System bus.

The service as proposed will furnish adequate transportation for the residents east of Twenty-third street to the business section of Richmond.

Republicans Will Have Rally Tonight

Republicans from all parts of Contra Costa county are expected to attend the Hoover-Curtis rally which will be held tonight at the Roosevelt auditorium.

Congressman Arthur Free of San Jose will be the speaker after being introduced by Thomas A. Carlson, Richmond attorney. George Fredenburg, president of the Richmond Hoover-Curtis club urged all supporters of the republican administration to be on hand and aid in urging their neighbors and others to be on hand to familiarize themselves with the issues in the present campaign.

"If the republican policies which have brought prosperity to the nation are to continue," Fredenburg said, "it behooves every staunch supporter of the party to do his best in acquainting the general public with the matters that will come before the voters within a few weeks."

A touch of the old time political gathering will be given to the meeting tonight with the appearance of the Richmond Concert band which will supply some old time political musical numbers. A concert will be given in front of the auditorium before the session and several numbers will be played during the meeting.

Special efforts are being made to encourage the women to attend the meeting and features of interest to the feminine vote have been included in the program for the evening.

Richmond 'Peeper' Faces Deportation

Caught peeping in the windows of an apartment house at Santa Fe and Richmond avenues early yesterday morning, according to police reports, Gerardo Carrera was placed under arrest by Sgt. Charles H. Mahnke and charged with vagrancy. He appeared before Police Judge C. A. Odell who gave him the option of paying a fine of $250 or spending 250 days in the county jail. According to reports to the police the man was apparently attempting to enter a room of the apartment through a half opened window. He is a Mexican citizen and has been in this country on passport for one year. Judge Odell has taken the case under advisement with the possibilities of returning the man to Mexico.

WORKING PEOPLE AND THE TARIFF

None of us who work day after day spend much time trying to learn about the tariff. The vast majority are not brought up to it, as it means digging into figures, which most of us dislike. We realize vaguely that there is a difference between a high tariff and a low tariff even though we do not know every detail relating to the tax on products shipped here from abroad and products shipped from here to other parts of the world.

But this we know and are sure of: We get better wages than many working people abroad and we live better than they even dream of living.

We know this, too, about the tariff: The pay roll for those of us who work for a living in this country is $600,000,000 a week—think of it, six hundred million dollars. And we know, also, that this would not be possible without a republican protective tariff. But for the protective tariff we would be down to the level of foreign labor and living conditions.

Here is something more we know: democrats, experimenting with the tariff, cut $100,000,000 a week from the American pay roll, which means that the man getting $6 a day slipped back to $3 or $4 a day. The employer could do nothing about it because he, too, suffered from democratic tariff reduction. To working people a dollar and a half is a big loss and proves we need Herbert Hoover and a protective tariff so we can go on happily as we are and not as a democratic tariff would make us—like the working people of foreign countries.

A million and a half people are said to be starving in China. The New York metropolitan press is overlooking a bet in not blaming this on the eighteenth amendment.

Thousands of men and women in this country neglect to register and vote. And they also resent any imputation that they are not good citizens.—Des Moines Register.

Maybe the reason Calles won't succeed himself is that he wants to take out some life insurance.—Dallas News.

Maybe the republicans have not got a chance to break up the Solid South but, at any rate they have the democrats going down there to do some speeches.

If the price keeps on soaring it won't be long until beefsteak will be rare, no matter how much you cook it.

In some states they stuff the ballot boxes but in all states they surely do stuff the voters.

We don't know what Cal is going to do after March the fourth but we will bet that he does it.

Dresses are now so short that the average girl cannot sit down without looking first.—Florida Times Union.

Talk about the near impossible. Did you ever try to change from street clothing to a bathing suit in a coupe?—Florida Times Union.

Listen girls, it's time to reduce when your skirt is as broad as it is long.

An intolerant man is one who does not vote for your man but prefers the opposition candidate.

Politics is making possible another national association, which may be known as the Bolters of 1927.

What Shall I Wear?

By JUDIE

A remodeled peasant dress waistline lowered from normal. Skirt scalloped to produce uneven hem, also slightly draped.

Dear Judie,

I have a good looking crepe dress with a peasant neckline, shirred at the waist and waistline. The skirt is very full. Somehow it does not look right. Could I drop the waistline? I am stouter than I was and it is all wrong for me, the shirring making my hips very prominent.—Loretta.

How do you like this version of a peasant dress? I hope you can

BEAUTY

Dear Miss Lane,
In your column recently you stated that hollow cheeks can be filled out. Will you kindly tell me how to do this?—Mrs. B.

Did I say that? I don't recall to what connection I made the statement, but I'll be glad to tell you all I can to help you fill out the contours of your neck.

First of all you've got to put on weight by following a regime of proper diet and sleep. You could massage till your arms were paralyzed and buy jar after jar of skin food and never add an ounce of flesh. I'm sorry to say it's so comparatively easy to rub on a little cream every day and feel that you've done your duty that most women resent the fact that this is not sufficient to fill out hollows on the neck or any place else.

However, proper patting on of such a skin food will keep the skin healthy and thus help to make emaciated lines become convex. If you do not care to buy one of the prepared skin foods on the market (and there are many excellent ones designed for varying types of skins) you can use coconut butter and pat it in gently with the fingertips or a patten designed for the purpose.

Beginning at the collarbone, pat gently (but firmly enough to bring the blood tingling to the surface) with a slightly upward movement for five minutes nightly and then use an astringent lotion to tighten up the skin and close the pores.

A WEEKLY JULENNAUM
"The time will come," shouted the speaker, "when women will get men's wages."

"Yes," said a little man in the corner. "Next Friday night."

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health for girls is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and other habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking nujol, since it works mechanically, and can't disturb the normal functions of any organ of the body. Particularly with girls, there are times when nujol should always be taken. Take a spoonful every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause diarrhea or gas pains or griping."

Nujol is different from any other substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless. THE INTRODUCTION OF COINS

THE Lydians were the first of all nations to introduce the coinage of gold and silver. This occurred during the reign of the Gyges, about 690 B. C., and was regarded as one of the greatest developments of its nature up to that time.

It would be physically impossible to carry on today's finance by the use of coin alone, so modern methods call for a checking account at a bank. We shall be pleased to open one for you.

LONE ATLANTIC FLIER LONG OVERDUE

11:51 a. m. (EST) Wednesday for England.

Waits Patiently
Mrs. MacDonald, her eyes heavy from lack of sleep, her black hair slightly awry, had waited patiently throughout the day for the word that the Gypsy Moth had been sighted. Hour after hour passed and the telephone bell jangled repeatedly but never with the news she wanted. Even when optimistic officials admitted that 2 p. m.
was the latest hour MacDonald's fuel would carry his plane ahead she refused to quit hoping.

In the quiet manner familiar to those who had worked with her husband, Mrs. MacDonald said:
"I feel sure he will get her."

But at Crockett and Stagg Lane airplane, MacDonald's home port, there was little optimism.

Just One Chance
Just one chance, they said. Just the chance that he landed in some remote part of Ireland where telephone communications are lacking.

That or the even slimmer chance that he landed near a ship which had no wireless facilities.

"It is considered here as absolutely impossible that MacDonald could still be flying after 2 p. m.
(EST) the officer on duty at Crockett field told the United Press. "His fuel probably would have been exhausted two hours before that time."

All arrangements to receive the flier were abandoned tonight and the flood lights were finally undled. At that time the officials emphasized that they had allowed seven hours past the time when it was reasonable to consider Macdonald's and supply exhausted.

During Flier
MacDonald is 33 years old and a retired naval officer with a good record as a submarine officer before he took up flying recently. With only eight hours solo flying he started a trip through the near east last spring and completed it successfully.

His Moth plane has a wing spread of only 26 feet and an open cockpit. Its cruising range is about 2500 miles.

He waited at Harbor Grace for three weeks before attempting his flight to England. The start was made suddenly when he decided weather conditions were favorable.

With the assistance of his mechanic, MacDonald fueled the plane to capacity, provided himself with a dozen sandwiches and coffee, and started. He said he might turn back if his weather conditions were not favorable.

MacDonald's fuel did not head directly for Ireland which he expected to reach within 18 hours.
The plane carried no wireless and had no water floats.

Lester Attends
Conclave In S. F.
Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lester left Richmond last night for San Francisco where they will attend a convention of the S. P. C. A. Lester is president of the county sumo group.

The convention will be held today and tomorrow. The Richmond couple will return Saturday night.

SIMPLE GARB CHOSEN FOR PICTURE

"Simplified elaborateness," this is the term Mae Busch, famous stage and screen actress, uses to describe just the right combination of wardrobe for playing the role of girl of the underworld.
As "Bessie" the underworld siren in Lon Chaney's "While the City Sleeps," Metro Goldwyn Mayer's powerful and absorbing mystery drama of gangland in New York's underworld and now playing at the California theatre
Miss Busch spent several days in working out her wardrobe, which she chose and designed especially to bring out the character of the role she portrayed.
"In the first place," she says
"a girl of the underworld usually does not have a great deal of money to spend on her wardrobe and she wants to put on as much glamour as possible. This she has to accomplish by taking simple garments and making them look as elaborate as she can."

"I took a simple black dress of the ready made variety and used this as a basis. I trimmed it with fur that might have been taken from another garment, and trimmed the hat also to suggest that several different hats had been used in new ways to achieve the general effect."

"Silk hose, but of course of the cheaper kind, were used and my shoes were cheap but as flashy as I could find."

"These little details are always noticed by the women in an audience, and with care one can tell volumes about a character by simply balancing the wardrobe for it in a proper manner."

The new picture is a vivid story of police and gangster warfare with Chaney playing a police detective amid thrilling adventures.
Among the dramatic highlights are a machine gun raid and a running battle between the gangster and police on the roofs of the city. A pretty and appealing romance runs throughout the story. Anita Page, plays the heroine role, others in the noteworthy cast include Wheeler Oakman, Carroll Nye, Polly Moran, Richard Carle, Lydia Yeamans Titus and others.

Ancient River Bed Discovered

NORTH ADAMS, Mass., Oct. 18.
(U.P.)—What geologists believe is a prehistoric river bed has been discovered here.

It was unearthed by workmen excavating for a new parochial school.

The ancient river bed contained boulders 10 feet in diameter, some of which were so firmly imbedded to use a steam drill to free the rock formation of earth.

sight of a policeman that he ran.
As he did so, a truck came around the corner and Richard just manprised when willing hands reached out and hauled him inside, but he was a trifle more surprised to find out that it was the patrol

SHORT SCHOOL YEARS PLAN OF MENTOR

CLEVELAND, Oct. 18.—UP—
What was headlined as a significant victory for the new school system in many sections of the country, was the announcement by St. George, superintendent of schools, that plans for shortening the 12-year course from first grade through high school by one or two years would be formulated at once.

The first step will be to make sure exactly how the new plan will be carried out. The new plan will be based on the study of the fundamentals through standardized tests which are to be given throughout the school system," Jones said.

Upon the results of these tests
the new course will be built, providing for three principal classifications of students—those who are able to do the work in 11 years; those who are able to accomplish it in 10 years, and those who must continue the 12-year system.

One of the most significant results of the new plan will be that students graduating from high school and entering colleges will receive their diplomas and graduate in business or professional one or two years earlier than at present. High school students who do not intend to enroll in a college or university will have an opportunity to equip themselves with a business education in addition to their regular high school courses in the same length of time they now spend in school.

Reorganization of the course of study in the new pattern probably will not be completed for another year," Jones said. The changes in classification of pupils will be accomplished gradually and probably will require several years to work out.

DIVORCE STUDY BY CHURCH TO CONTINUE

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—UP—Three years study of the divorce question was insufficient to permit the Episcopal commission on divorce to work out a practical solution. Page of Michigan, chairman of the commission reported to the church convention.

He asked and was granted three years additional time and an appropriation of $25,000 to $50,000 annually to continue the investigation.

Although the commission made no recommendation as to changes in the church divorce rule it suggested three things which might aid in improving conditions.

That normal schools, colleges, universities and seminaries be asked to offer more instruction on human relationship especially on marriage.

That the clergy be urged to give marriage training a conspicuous place in their church program.

That social service commissions be asked to give special attention to the whole problem of marriage and divorce.

The commission reported it found many cases for divorce, heard many remedial suggestions, but saw no immediate benefits from changes in the present church rules.

The Episcopal church permits remarriage only to innocent persons in divorce granted on statutory charges.

Good heating and fuel economy

come only with heating equipment carefully planned and installed

You know how homes differ in their size and the type of building materials used. There is 10% less heat loss through plaster and board walls as through brick walls. And there is 25% less heat loss through insulated walls. These are some of the facts our staff considers before recommending a heating system. For after all, a furnace must keep your home warm no matter how your home is built.

Only trained engineers can weigh such facts and fit the proper heating equipment to each home.

There is no obligation if you have one of our men look over your home. The facts he finds will be taken back for careful consideration by our staff. Then you'll know the recommendations they make will be good. As we will always be in business we can only afford to recommend good gas heating equipment to our customers. And that is one reason why all our recommendations are carefully made. Another reason is this company knows by years of carefully kept records, that good heating and fuel economy come only with heating equipment carefully planned and installed.

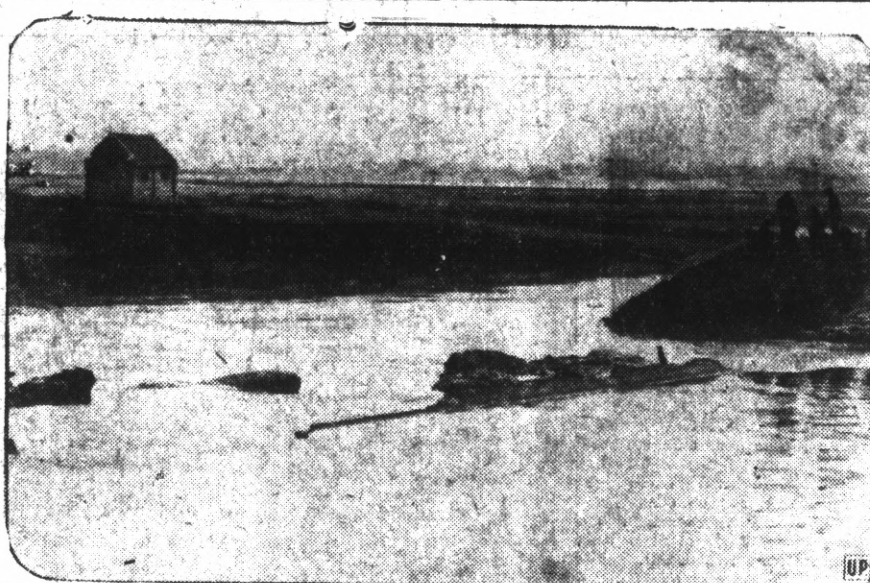

A postcard or phone call will bring a heating expert to your home.

sermon of some kind on brotherly love.

The composition that marked his actions during his brief crime career, remained with him to the last and in his philosophical outlook he found excuse for his murderous complex a few months ago.

Hickman has shown no sign of breaking during his confinement in the cell that he knows he will not leave until less than 20 seconds before his body is drawn up short at the end of a three-quarter inch grass rope now being tightened by the weight of a 200 pound block of iron.

Slept Soundly

During his first night in the death cell he slept soundly for eight hours. Guards said he had hardly entered the cubicle before he was found asleep on the cot that was placed in the cell for him.

And with the exception of a brief spell when he arose and wrote two letters, one to a former cellmate, in condemned row, he slept peacefully through the night.

He looked his death watch squarely in the eye and talked to Warden Holohan as man to man, apparently there was no concept of impending events in his mind.

Isn't So Bad

Tonight he confided to a guard that the death cell "isn't so bad." If it wasn't for that light that annoyed him by keeping him awake.

"I have never seen any of them take it as calmly as this boy," the warden told the United Press today. "He has no sense of fear."

Not to See Mother

Hickman was disappointed when he heard that he would not see his mother before he is led to the gallows. His march from the condemned row across the prison yard and up the long flight of steps to the death cell was postponed several hours because the kind-hearted warden had received a report that Mrs. Hickman was en route to San Quentin from her Kansas City home. But when she did not arrive at 9 o'clock in the evening Hickman was removed to the tiny room adjoining the gallows chamber.

His last expression to guards before entering the cubicle was a wish to see his mother.

Too Busy To Eat

Hickman ate only a light lunch today, telling the warden he was too busy writing letters to eat, but that he had "saved up" for dinner when he ordered a heavy meal of fried chicken and country gravy, veal croquettes and green peas, two baked potatoes, pineapple souffle, pear pie, coffee and milk.

At his request the condemned man was sent up new phonograph records tonight. The music asked for included piano renditions of Pyotrak's Humoresque and Ave Maria, played by Paderewski, and Schumann-Heinkel singing the Rosary.

He played these three records over and over during the early hours of the night, listening attentively like a music lover in a box seat at an opera.

Letter From Mother

Early in the evening Warden Holohan received a letter for Hickman from his mother. Holohan immediately took the letter to the death cell.

There was unmistakable joy in the youth's eyes. He read the long letter, glancing up at the warden then re-read it. When he had finished he smiled and thanked Holohan again.

"That has given me comfort," was his only comment.

It was definitely settled today that Hickman's body would be given a decent burial and not turned over to scientific persons for study as had been suggested. This word was carried to Hickman and it seemed to relieve him.

Resents Experiments

Throughout his incarceration in San Quentin he has resented the suggestion that his body be made a laboratory experiment, accepting it as an inference that he is insane. This he continued to deny tonight.

To Hickman, his father, whom the boy blamed for much of his trouble, made arrangements this afternoon for the body to be embalmed in San Quentin and then taken for burial to San Rafael, picturesque little city in the green Marin county hills nearby.

Later today the suit of civilian clothing which Hickman will wear to the gallows was chosen by Warden Holohan. It was a black broadcloth of fashionable cut. With it Hickman will wear a white shirt without a tie.

The garments will be taken to Hickman a short time before his execution.

Final Watch

All the final details tonight were in the hands of Frank Holohan and Charles Alton, the two veteran guards assigned to the death watch. The task of attending a condemned criminal during his last 48 hours on earth is not a new one to either and they will go through their routine methodically and wholly without show of emotion.

These two men will remain with Hickman until the scaffold trap clangs open and the boy's body plunges downward to death a few minutes after 10 o'clock Friday.

At 10 o'clock tomorrow they will enter the death cell. With swift, deft motions they willasten the heavy leather belt around the boy's waist. Hand straps, attached to the belt will pinion Hickman's wrists to his side.

Then without delay the two guards will each place a hand under Hickman's armpits and he will be lifted through the door to the death house and up the thirteen steps with rapidity of motion resembling the result of many rehearsals. Less than 11 seconds later the hangman will raise his hand and the trap will be sprung.

Mother Prays For Fox As Death Nears

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Prayers for the forgiveness of her son, William Edward Hickman, who will die on the gallows at San Quentin prison, tomorrow, for the slaying of Marion Parker were offered up tonight by his mother, Mrs. Eva Hickman.

"She is praying tonight and will be praying Friday as any mother would pray for a son that is to die on the gallows," Capt. Charles Edwards family adviser told the United Press. "Her hours now are spent in prayer. The strain of it all has brought on ill health but she is courageous and knows that all is being done to save her boy from the fate that awaits him Friday on the gallows," Edwards said.

Mrs. Hickman will see no newspapers during the next few days and she will not know until told by Capt. Edwards the time that her son met death.

CARDS - IDAHO READY FOR CONTEST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 18.—The Stanford football squad will journey here tomorrow to meet the Idaho Vandals at the Kezar stadium.

Twenty-four Vandals, headed by Charlie Erb arrived here this morning and immediately started night practice preparatory to the game. The Cardinals may arrive tonight or tomorrow morning for the game.

The Vandals, by all reports, boasts the heaviest football squad on the coast.

Not a little has been made of Earl Warner's powerful backfield "B" shift, inaugurated this year. The Cards have been rather slow in executing this trick play, but Warner believes they will have it down "pat" when they tangle with the Vandals.

Bill Hoffman, who is off to a late start, will be used by Warner but Erb tells the broad world that his full, one Bill Ketschick is strong, if not stronger, than the much touted Bill Erb says he will leave it to the fans to decide.

Big Artman, Warner's new tackle, was much in evidence at the last practice start. Artman weighs 230 pounds and is as solid as a brick wall, if one were to believe preliminary reports.

Idaho is ready for the game, according to all reports. This has been talked of as the biggest game for the Vandals and all practice and games have led up to this climax.

Birds Live Off Motorists' Prey

ELKO, Nev., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—The sight of hundreds of beautiful magpies along the highways while but few are seen in the interior, is one of the puzzles of motorists across the Nevada wastelands or through such a city as Elko.

A curious motorist investigated and learned that the dazzling black birds, spotted with patches of white feathers, lived the highways waiting for diners.

Speeding motor cars kill hundreds of desert jack rabbits and nothing tastes so good to a hungry magpie as fresh rabbit. So they line the highways.

Silk Hats Ruin Smugglers' Den

LONDON, Oct. 18.—UP—Silk hats and morning coats instead of red shawls and gay bandanas ruin what might be a perfectly good pirate's den on the Thames.

Below the ground, safe from sunlight, is the storing place for goods confiscated from modern pirates, or smugglers. It is the King's Warehouse and is more than 100 years old.

To, no, no, and a bottle of rum" is entirely missing from an otherwise piratical scene. And of course the officials are correctly dressed and do not carry cutlasses. But the baggage, crates, parcels and bundles collected in the underground rooms are suggestive of an ideal meeting place for Long John Silver, or Captain Hook and his merry men.

Inferiority Bred By Movies

CHAPLIN HILL, N. C., Oct. 18.—(U.P.)—Movies breed inferiority in the constant movie fan, according to Mrs. Gladys H. Greer, an authority on child training.

The Cinderella motif is responsible, she told the Public Welfare Institute here.

"Virtually all moving pictures are based on the Cinderella motif in that the underdog, the young person with few advantages always comes up at the end of the picture—not with intangible advantages, but with material gain," she said.

"We are fostering the idea of luxury and material possessions and the more pronounced the motif becomes, the larger the number who are made to feel inferior. For instance in the movies every hero is strong, brave and handsome and every woman equally beautiful and charming."

TROJANS MAY GET BEARS' MEASURE

BERKELEY, Oct. 18.—All roads lead to Berkeley and the California University of Southern California football game Saturday at the Memorial stadium.

The Trojans are favorites to win the big contest; for once the Bears are rated as underdogs in the annual truce. The funny part about it is some sport experts declare the Bears have an even bigger chance of winning from Howard Jones' men than they have had in any other game.

It will be remembered that the Bears entered the game last year in the south big favorites—only to be taken down the line.

Nils Price has shown a pretty good outfit this year—almost of championship calibre. They have played three games and won every one. Not once did an opposing team threaten them.

In all years previous to this, California has lost because her defense was sagged, but the old iron wall seems to be right on the job this year. Even the secondary defense, that has failed so often, has snapped out of it and is working fine.

Nils Price has been all hot and bothered about the game, but today he told reporters that he is firmly convinced that his outfit is ready.

Young Carmen and Eddie Doody have been selected to mix in the main battle of ten (take your choice of the following adjectives) fast, heavy, furious, slugging, battling rounds. It may be a wonderful fight—but then again, on the other hand, we have—

Alvarez and Ryan are on the lineup for the six round event. This should be what is known to the fans as a "whale of a fight". Villa and Joe Cleveland will furnish materials for cheers, or what have you, in the special event.

Johnny Ramos, who fought Tony Oliver two weeks ago, is paired with Earl Taylor and Pete Tripodes opens the show with Norman Townsend.

To be sure, the Scotch are a saving people. They are frugal and industrious, two habits those who poke fun at them might well adopt. Start a bank account. It is no joke to be broke.

RICHMOND BOY $20,000 AUTO ADMITS 32 THEFTS

Admitting in a statement to Chief of Police Dan Cox that he participated in 32 robberies with the last 30 days, Dave Phillips yesterday implicated another Richmond boy as his accomplice in one of the crimes. Phillips appeared for preliminary hearing before Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Alstrom yesterday on charges of burglary and driving a car without the consent of the owner. He was bound over to the superior court and his bail fixed at $2500 on each of the two charges.

On the automobile charge, he is accused of stealing a car belonging to F. P. Marshall of Richmond. The burglary charge is the outcome of the daylight robbery of the Fourth Street garage when two youths entered and took $15 from the till.

Other Richmond crimes said to have been admitted by Phillips are the burglarizing of three school houses, the offices of the Builders Exchange and the Red Men's hall. He also admitted entering the Twenty-second street garage, the burglarizing of the Larry Counts service station and the taking of a ring from the A. M. Codegla steamship agency.

Phillips stated that he and his "pal" started on their crime career in Sacramento Sept. 28 where they made away with a couple. For several days after, they operated in Central California towns.

Among the inland county crimes listed by Phillips are:

Service station at Bartlett Springs, September 22, $18; service station at Turlock, Sept. 25, $40; drug store at Modesto, Sept. 28; $5 and wrist watch; service station at Modesto, September 29, gas and oil; Oakland service station, Oct. 2, gas and oil; San Jose service station, Oct. 4, $20; Ukiah service station, Oct. 8, $20; Watsonville service station, $20; six service station robberies in Altamont Pass.

Girl Rescued After Bath In Oakland Lake

OAKLAND, Oct. 18.—Lake Merritt is entirely too wet, muddy and cold for a morning bath in a la Paris, according to Doris Kindall, 23, 2530 East Twenty-second street.

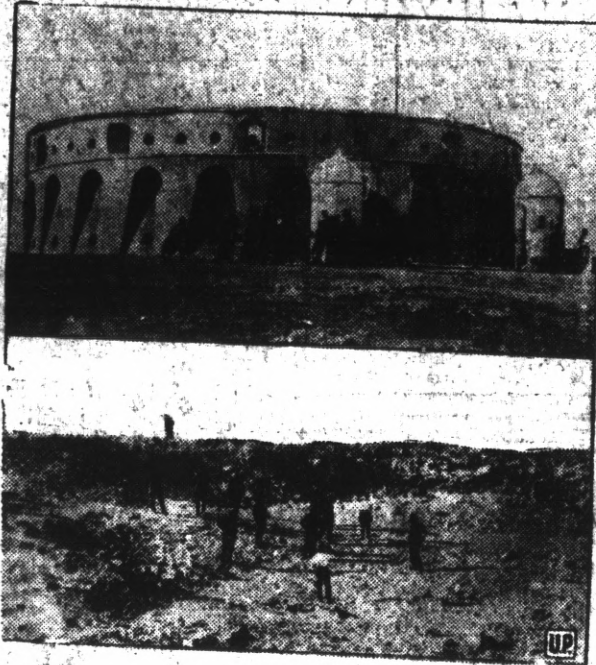

In fact Miss Kindall is so convinced that the Paris custom of taking a morning open air plunge is all wet—so much so that she has not only sworn off on that style of bathing, but on reading French stories as well.

The girl's screams attracted the attention of an unidentified man who pulled her from the cold plunge which had been taken, street clothes and all and after summoning a taxicab took her home without telling his name.

3 Persons Held In Spreckels Mansion Fire

NAPA, Oct. 18.—Conducting a vigorous probe into the burning of the 34-room country mansion on the Spreckels estate here, authorities are holding three charged employees for further questioning. Napa's authorities would not be given out by the investigating authorities until members of the family had been interviewed.

Insurance adjusters and arson experts have arrived at the ruins of the large home and are making a thorough inspection of the grounds in an attempt to find further evidence of an arson plot. According to early reports the fire broke out in three places of the home simultaneously.

Although several lives were endangered, all eight persons who were in the home at the time of the flames were rescued. Authorities contended that they are satisfied that something was used to give the flames a start as the building collapsed before the fire was brought under control. The fire department had only a little run from the station to the home.
